The In God We Trust Program for the month of October was presented to L. Leo Judice Elementary School in Scott on October 23rd. Representing our Assembly were Sir Knight's Harold Foote, Bobby Donlon, JT McBride and Pete Martin. I would like to extend my gratitude to these gentlemen for standing in for those of us who, for work reasons, cannot be there.

Fill our thoughts with your divine wisdom. Fill our words with compassion and make our actions express your heartfelt love. Help us to do the best we can for the good of our family, our friends and our country.

Veterans Day Prayer

I want to remember the veterans of foreign wars today, dear Lord. Many still live among us, some suffering silently from wounds of body, soul, and spirit. I ask that you would heal them by your consoling Spirit: free them from the turmoil of heart and mind that would keep them from enjoying the very liberties for which they fought.

The sacrifice of our veterans is moving and humbling, Father, in light of my life of relative ease and safety.

I pause this moment to honor these brave men and women, bowing my head in reverence and gratitude for their selfless and heroic efforts to preserve life and liberty for others. Bless our veterans, dearest God! In your merciful name, amen.

A Knight's Prayer

Almighty God, Eternal Father, Lord of Lords, have mercy upon me, a humble knight in Thy Divine Service. Oh Lord, I pray for Thy indulgence and blessings. Forget not Thine servant in his trials, nor his Order of Knighthood. I pray, that Thy Will be done in all things, both great and small.

Let me always be worthy of Thee, let me not forget Thee in good times nor bad. Armor me with the armor of Thy Righteousness, give me the sword of Truth that I shall confound Thine enemies and be unto Thee a true knight.

O Lord, in my hour of need, be with me. Let me never forget my sacred and holy vows unto Thee, that I should not be prey unto demons and devils nor the dark things of this world.

Let me always be a beacon unto those in distress, never allow me to forget my obligation unto the homeless nor the poor: let me serve Thee and Thine Eternal Throne all the days of my life. Let me always remember the obligations that I have taken upon me. Lord, if it is Thine Will, let me serve Thee forever!

If ever, oh Lord, I turn from Thee and this Order, let my name forever be cursed, may my spurs be broken and my body given unto demons to dwell with them forever in that Lake of Fire which Thou hast prepared for the ungodly.

Power beyond Power, Pillar of Strength, Refuge of the Homeless, let me serve Thee for all the days of my life! Amen.

The above words were part of an oral history of the Crusades compiled in 1200 A.D. and were spoken by a Knight Hospitaller moments before a battle against enemy forces.
