[Jesus] said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Gospel for May 24, Jn 20:21)

Jesus sends us into the world, just as the Father sent him. Jesus had a sacred, divine mission — to proclaim the Good News of salvation and build the kingdom of God — and we are commissioned to do likewise. As his faithful disciples, we continue his saving mission on earth, consistent with our state of life. We are not just "receivers" of the Gospel; our mission is to bear witness to the Good News in word and action, living the Gospel through our example and outreach to others.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to take a few minutes each morning and prayerfully ask Jesus how you can use your gifts for his mission, and set one clear, specific resolution (large or small) for what you will do on that particular day.

Questions for Reflection:

How seriously do you take this mission that Christ has given you? What specifically has Jesus sent you into the world to do? How can you better live out this mission in the workplace, in your family life, and through your participation in the Knights of Columbus?

Knight of the Month

This month's Knight of the Month has been an active Knight for many years. He is a frequent volunteer at our many events and has worked with the cooking crew. He is also active in the parish, including working the screens at mass for the slideshow and readings. When our council needed help with cooking for meals, he was happy to step up and volunteer once again. Please help me to congratulate October's Knight of the Month, Pat Dubois.

Family of the Month

This month's Family of the Month are military parents. They lost their son, Patrick, who proudly supported Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan years back, defending our freedom. Every time you see them they have a smile on their face and always support our military. They have raised funds for the Patrick Williamson Foundation which works to assist local and national organizations that support his core values- Education, his country and his community. They have supported the KCs and St Cecelia school. She was a volunteer at SCS in the Good Shepard Program. They have volunteered at the Broussard Community Fair. They spend time in our adoration chapel. I would like to congratulate this months Family of the Month Sybil and Buddy Williamson
