“Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.” (Gospel for Dec. 7, Mt 3:10)

In these reflections over the past year, we have meditated on the importance of our faith bearing fruit in good works. In a way, this Gospel passage, quoting St. John the Baptist, might seem out of place during Advent. But throughout this season, we reflect not only on Christ's coming in the incarnation, but also his second coming in judgment at the end of the world. Let us pray and work to ensure we lead truly faithful and fruitful lives as disciples of Jesus.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to spend some time reflecting on the four last things — death, judgment, heaven and hell — to better prepare yourself for eternity.

Questions for Reflection:

Do I live with my sights set on heaven? Am I aware of the reality of hell? Do I live my life so as to be prepared for my death and judgment?

Knight of the Month

This month's Knight of the Month is a familiar face at all of our 3rd and 4th degree meetings. He can always be found doing various volunteer jobs including cutting palms for Palm Sunday, working in lines at fundraisers, supporting and participating in the KC Clay shoot and setting up for meetings while assisting in meal prep for many of these meetings. He has been instrumental in handling Pro Life walks and our annual Clay Shoot. He is also involved in ceremonies with the 4th degree and other Diocesan needs. He is always one to step up and volunteer

Congratulations to Brother Glenn Lambert

Family of the Month

This month's family of the month is very involved in our church parish and council. He holds positions both in our 3rd and 4th degrees. He has been a member of our church choir since he was a teen. He spearheads the set up of our church fair and also works the "Big Wheel" booth with family members and friends. She is a Eucharistic minister, teaches parent/godparent pre-baptism classes and serves on the fair promotion team. They have both been active in parish small groups and weekly Adoration. Congratulations to the Mike and Marie Comeaux family!
