KC of the Month

Brothers, this month's Knight of the Month is an extremely valuable member of our council, he attends all of our meetings, attends Mass every Sunday, is an usher at our Church, leads the rosary and serves communion to the elderly and sick at our local nursing homes, he cooks meals for our assembly meetings, involved with our pro life walk, takes the extra step to assure our events are successful. Please join me in congratulating John Guidry as this months Knight of the Month.

Family of the Month

This month's Family of the Month, is a couple that is dedicated to serving God and our Parish. She is a member of the Sacred Heart of Jesus KC ladies auxiliary and held many positions in this organization. She faithfully attends all the Knights of Columbus state family meetings with her husband and is the driving force behind him. He has held almost every position in the 3rd and 4th degrees, including Grand Knight and Faithful Navigator. He is on our KC state family and currently serves as the State Warden for the Louisiana Knights of Columbus and we hope on the way to becoming the State Deputy. This family is solely dedicated to serving our community and church in the Knights of Columbus. Please help me in congratulating Donna and George Martin as this months Family of the Month.
