“Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me.” (Gospel for Feb. 1, Mt 5:11)

In the next verse, Jesus continues, “Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you” (Mt 5:12b). His words imply that his disciples are prophets in their own right, following after the prophets of old. Indeed, as his disciples, we become priests, prophets and kings by virtue of our baptism. In our prophetic role, we are called to speak God’s truth even when it is unpopular in the eyes of the world.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to learn more about the Church’s teachings on one or two contemporary issues that you are concerned about, so that you can better defend the truth when an opportunity arises. Look to the Catechism of the Catholic Church and booklets from the Order’s Catholic Information Service (kofc.org/cis) as resources.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you shy away from speaking the truth because you fear opposition or repercussions?
Does your silence on issues of faith or morals sometimes give others the false impression of agreement? How do you make sure you are being respectful and charitable to others when speaking the truth?

Council News

I want to thank everyone who helped at the Jambalaya Fundraiser. We had a lot of brother knights and wives helping, it was really nice to see all of ya'll there. We raised enough to donate $500 to each of our Seminarians. We also donated 250 dinners to feed the homeless.

Remember this is who we are, we enjoy fraternity with each other and we help others.

On Saturday the 21st we are having a fraternal benefits night along with St Pius council. It will be at St Pius at 6 pm. Dinner will be served. Come out and learn more about our insurance and investment opportunities of the Knight of Columbus

This month we are having our annual Clay Shoot on February 28. Please sell your raffle tickets and turn the stubs and money in before then. Come out that morning and help us out.

Knight of the Month

This months Knight of the Month really stepped up at the jambalaya fundraiser and has volunteered to cook for our Clay Shoot. He also obtained a donation for the meal. Please congratulate our February Knight of the month Danny Menard
